

Serving our Neighbors in Love and Mercy

A One Day Conference on Vocation and Outreach for congregations

This conference is designed for congregations who have, as a part of their renewal efforts, made a corporate decision to revitalize their outreach efforts. This conference provides the Scriptural background and insight for understanding how the Doctrine of Vocation properly separates the roles of clergy and laity in undertaking the needed tasks for evangelism and outreach. This sets the context for the Scriptural understanding of how outreach is accomplished and by whom. The two workshops provide further discussion and the tools to implement your plans. The conference consists of four sessions as follows:

Session 1 – Vocation: Faith and Good Works

Session 2 – Vocation Workshop

Session 3 – Evangelism and Outreach: What We Need to Know and Act On

Session 4 – Following Christ: Inside and Outside Your Church

All sessions are PowerPoint presentations complete with speaker notes so local pastors can teach them, either as a single congregation or in partnership with other local congregation. Also included are pdf files containing handout pages for the attendees, a Word template for advertising your event and a problem solving guide. For instructor assistance arrangements, please contact Gene at Church Matters-Solutions or call 541-530-0900.

How to order

Orders for the materials can be placed via the website or mail. Orders will be shipped when the purchase price is received at the following address: Gene White, 2200 SW Homer Ross Loop, McMinnville, OR 97128.

Price $40.00 using CD format, plus $10.00 shipping and handling.

All profits above expenses will be donated bi-annually to Confessional Lutheran organizations that are teaching the laity.

Author: Gene White, edited by Rev. Evan Goeglein

Website: www.churchmattersolutions.org or churchmatters@frontier.com